I absolutely laughed my way through this incredible array of funny, sometimes hard to believe stories that only a daughter or son-in-law can truly relate to. This incredible assortment of stories just goes to show how widespread an issue it is between extended families that are brought together by the institution of marriage. The differences in various cultural pursuits and general lack of commonalities makes this collection both humorous and poignant. This is a fantastic gift for ANY married couple. KUDOS to a job well done!!!

I'm a fan of Andrea Syrtash's writing so I ordered this book. Turns out she wasn't the author but the editor with Hundreds of Heads Books and most of the advice is written by other people. She included a few good exercises and some intros but not much else. There are some good little tips from the people she interviewed. It's good, just not what I was expecting.

I'm a fan of all the Hundreds of Heads guides (I'm on their mailing list to get early copies!) and this one rocks. It's filled with funny and helpful advice from the editor and the hundreds of contributors. I'm going to buy it for an upcoming bridal shower to comfort my friend who has a less than pleasant M.I.L!
