Overpriced and not particularly useful. This content was included in another product I purchased ("Streetwise Barcelona Map", I wasn't aware of this), so this was a total waste of money. However, resources online are much better for free. You can easily print out a larger scale version of the metro map (which I did) and use that for your trip planning. The metro in BCN is actually very easy to navigate and an expensive laminated map is not at all necessary.

it is a good map . precise we could find the streets we were looking for. Helped us pre-map some walks and where to stay .. one draw back is it only covers Barcelona main city .. if you stay out of that range you are not on the map (but google is) it's sturdy and readable so we will like it.

Easy to read, durable and light-weight. We use them with stiky arrows and post-it notes. We found the locations of all our hotels and the places we plan to visit. Public transportation routes are clearly marked Extremely convenient to have in my pocket. I used this map more than any other that I carried with me. It folds up nice and compactly in the pocket and it is very easy to read. The lamination started peeling by the end of my trip, which is not surprising given the amount that I used it, and it was still easily read even with the lamination peeling.

This is only one panel of a three panel product as sold everywhere else on the planet. I was expecting a STREET map on a STREETWISE product and it is only a subway map. Very disappointing. Very misleading. "Metro" means "metropolitan area" to a lot of us in this world.

The print is just too small. Other than that it is a good map. After purchasing this one I got the Rough Guide map which is excellent!

too small to be useful to my old eyes. It was essentially unreadable to me. Many paper maps (usually free at hotels) had a metro section anyway, making this a duplicate to carry around.

This streetwise Barcelona Metro Map is a great disappointment as it is only one piece of paper as shown laminated. It is nothing like the one that we purchased for Rome.
