Customer Reviews

Concise paragraphs summarizing the contents of hundreds of article and books on American Jewish farmers. The details are in these works, not in this bibliography, but even so this work gives tantalizing hints of a pastoral Jewish experience in the unlikeliest of places -- the Dakotas, Kentucky, rural California. Somewhere near Arpin, Wisconsin, perhaps one can find traces of the rural synagogue that once housed the congregation of Jewish immigrants trying to make a go of it from unforgiving soil.
