Manners Made Easy For The Family: 365 Timeless Etiquette Tips For Every Occasion

Synopsis

Christian etiquette expert June Hines Moore will improve the quality of life in homes everywhere with Manners Made Easy for the Family. This quintessential page-per-day guide to good manners presents 365 rules—“just one or two sentences each”—followed by a family application or practice point and example or instruction from the Bible. Parents and children can read and discuss each manner at breakfast or dinner for an entire year, learning about everything from table manners and telephone etiquette to proper church behavior and online etiquette. • There’s even a helpful index for quick reference and for whenever questions about specific situations arise.

Customer Reviews

Having my own children made me realise the value of manners and the need of them as we grow. Knowing i can teach my children manners and in turn that they will feel comfortable knowing how to behave and how others could behave is important. This book is small, bright pink (boys/men- may think manners are only for girls/women) Each page has a manner (there are 365 manners chosen), a small description/brief outline and either a bible passage or famous quote to highlight the description. Like most manners, children find them easier to emulate when the adults know them. I would say this is a handy family reference on manners and useful should you have small members.

This manners book is great to grab at the dinner table and read a page or two. It is fun and a great tool of etiquette. Kids and adults can benefit.

I loved this book; having a "manner for the day" is an awesome way to study these as a family.

This book is a must have for everyone. Good practical manners that everyone should know. Excellent for children. This is a good book to discuss at the dinner table. I'm so glad I bought for my granddaughters.

I still want this book in physical form but I went ahead and got the digital copy. We use it for etiquette and manners class in our homeschool. GREAT book and love the scripture accompaniment!
